CALLING ALL RMHS MUSICIANS, ARTISTS, WRITERS, PHOTOGRAPHERS, DANCERS...

Want to win $500 AND showcase your talents at a local music festival?!

Draft a well-thought-out proposal, no more than 500 words, for a project YOU can lead to better the community. Find a way to incorporate your art or just focus on a cause you care about!

Please also tell us what you'd be interested in buying with $500 and what you would showcase at the Jams for Jake music festival on August 4th. Winner will also receive moral and material support for their community project.

Need help funding a new camera? Art supplies or music production software calling your name? Want a new amp, instrument, or other equipment? See www.jamsforjake.com for complete contest details and entry forms.

Submissions must be made to JamsforJake@gmail.com no later than June 15th.

| Name:                                | Grade:                | Submission date:  |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------|---|
| Project proposal:                    |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      | ady enjoy and are inv | It can be for a new creative endeavor rested in. This is not a trick question! etter. |
|                                      |                       |   |
|                                      |                       | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·   |
|                                      |                       |   |
| Extra credit: Don't be bashful! What | would you want to s   | showcase at Jams for Jake?  |
|                                      |                       |   |